

A Faster Path to Success Through Combined Bachelor's and Master's Degrees

Regis University's School of Computer & Information Sciences and School of Management offer a Combined Bachelor of Science in Business Technology with a choice of three Master's degrees, enabling you to complete both degree programs by planning early for the Master's portion of your education and utilizing a more efficient use of your credit requirements and tuition dollars.

Bachelor of Science in Business Technology Management

Master of Science in Information Technology Management

- Complete both degree programs in only 155-credit hours.
- Three graduate courses are counted toward your undergraduate degree.

OR

Master of Business Administration

- Complete both degree programs in only 161-credit hours.
- Two graduate courses are counted toward your undergraduate degree.

OR

Master of Science in Organization Leadership

- Complete both degree programs in only 155-credit hours.
- Two graduate courses are counted toward your undergraduate degree.

School of Computer & Information Sciences Combined Bachelor's and Master's degree

Requirements:

- GPA 3.0 overall
- Complete the foundational major courses for Business Technology Management
- Complete all pre-requisites for desired Master's degree

Application: (Only for students currently enrolled in the College for Professional Studies) Complete the paper-based School of Computer & Information Sciences Combined Bachelor's and Master's Degrees Mini-Application. Contact your Undergraduate Advisor for the Mini-Application.

- Interview with Graduate Advisor
- Once accepted, the student will have the ability to enroll in three 3-credit graduate-level courses while in the Bachelor's degree program. The three 3-credit graduate-level courses will be substituted for three 3-credit undergraduate-level courses in the student's degree plan.
- Financial Aid funding will be at the undergraduate level until the Bachelor's degree is conferred.

School of Management Combined Bachelor's and Master's degrees

Requirements:

- GPA 3.0 overall
- Complete the foundational major courses for Business Technology Management
- Complete all pre-requisites for desired Master's degree

Application: (Only for students currently enrolled in the College for Professional Studies) Complete the paper-based School of Computer & Information Sciences Combined Bachelor's and Master's Degrees Mini-Application. Contact your Undergraduate Advisor for the Mini-Application..

- Interview with Graduate Advisor
- Current Résumé
- Once accepted, the student will have the ability to enroll in two 3-credit graduate-level courses while in the Bachelor's degree program. The two 3-credit graduate-level courses will be substituted for two 3-credit undergraduate-level courses in the student's degree plan.
- Financial Aid funding will be at the undergraduate level until the Bachelor's degree is conferred.

For more information and to get started, speak with your Regis Advisor today!