Military Preferred Tuition Information

Regis University students who are active duty military or whose spouses are active duty military are eligible for a preferred tuition rate for all courses offered in the College for Professional Studies. (Courses offered in the Rueckert-Hartman College for Healthcare Professions or Regis College are not eligible for this preferred tuition rate.) In order to prove eligibility for the military tuition rate, you must fill out the Military Preferred Tuition Form (next page) AND complete ONE of the following steps:

- Fax, mail, or scan and e-mail a copy of the active military ID (front and back)
- Fax, mail, or scan and e-mail a copy of the active duty orders
- Drop off one of the above documents at any campus location (click HERE for directions)

Please use the contact information below when submitting the supplemental documentation:

Regis University
Academic Records and Registration
3333 Regis Blvd A-8
Denver, Colorado 80221
Fax: 303.964.5536
Email: registrar@regis.edu

Students are eligible for the military tuition rate from the time Regis University receives all of the required documentation until the expiration date on the military ID or end date on the active duty orders. Regis University's policy does not allow retroactive application of any preferred tuition rate to any course that has ended prior to the University receiving all of the required documentation.

Please continue to check your RegisNET e-mail account. If there are any issues with your form and/or documentation, details will be sent to your RegisNET e-mail address. You can access your account by going to email.regis.edu and entering your RegisNET username and password.

Please contact Enrollment Services with any discount-related questions or issues at 303-458-4126 / 1-800-568-8932 or registrar@regis.edu.
